

VETERINARY HISTORY SOCIETY

Meeting and Annual General Meeting

Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons
Belgravia House, 62-64 Horseferry Road, London SW1P 2AF

Thursday November 14th 2013

- 10.15 Coffee
- 10.40 Mike Hinton – a retired veterinarian with a fascination for matters historical Herbivora, other than equidae, and the Crimean Campaign
- 11.10 Trevor Faragher – a past chairman of the Australian Veterinary History Society
ReJoyce – Foot-and-mouth disease in Ireland and the bullock-befriending bard
- 11.40 Gareth Davies – a retired vet reflecting on some of the diseases he has encountered
Contagious Bovine Pleuropneumonia: the History of an Enigmatic Disease
- 12.10 Paul Watkins – a retiring veterinarian whose interests in military and medical history are taking over. He is an Honorary Research Fellow at Oxford Brooks University William Moss – War Artist and Veterinary Surgeon
- 12.40 Buffet lunch
- 13.40 David Harwood – an honorary veterinary surgeon for the British Goat Society Goats – their evolution from hieroglyphs to modern intensification
- 14.10 Chris Pardoe – a working farrier whose research at Hawkshead concerns veterinary farriery
Modern Farriery Research led by horse-shoeing history
- 14.40 Abigail Woods – a historian of human and animal health
A challenge to veterinary mythology: reassessing the Coleman years and the campaign for RVC reform, 1793-1844
- 15.10 Annual General Meeting
Election of Officers and Committee: Jean Mann is standing down as Secretary; otherwise all present members are willing to stand for re-election; John Moffitt is willing to stand. Please inform the Secretary if there are any other nominations by two weeks before the Meeting.